SUBJ. : Future University Presidents' Visits
STATINTL

1. When I took [REDACTED] in to introduce him to Turner today one of the subjects that came up for discussion was the advisability of having more university presidents visits in the future. Stan quoted you on the inordinate consumption of high level time in some cases and finally said he was prepared to try one more, tentatively in February. But he also said we should shoot for "an even dozen." I think you might like to know that you have made your point.
